

ANNA MIA QUINTET

MIASOPHY

FANCYMUSIC

This album is about how to be yourself and what it means. For a long time I thought that there was some kind of correct “I” that is real. But now I understand that the ability to be yourself is to make yourself every day, in accordance with your ideas about beauty.

Anna Mia, translated by Oleg Krokhalev

Этот альбом – о том, как быть собой, что это значит. Долгое время я думала, что есть какое-то правильное “я”, которое настоящее. Но теперь понимаю, что умение быть собой состоит в том, чтобы ежедневно делать себя, в соответствии со своими понятиями о прекрасном.

Walk of Freedom

sure, you're loving truth in me you thought, you thought, you thought, you're free whenever I look, I catch up with your thought that makes me heard makes you happy gives you a part of me, gives me part of me and I...

you see me through i'm loving you
you see me high in love am i

so, you can get everything anything you want

here am I, it makes me high you thought, you thought, you thought, you fly whenever I use same old, I just want to hold that cannot be caught that always will come

only easily...
if you will stay

Вода

ніч, дощ, тепло мені п'ю чай, сиджу на вікні вода ламає
ліхтарні вогні
на сотні нових зірок
вода летить
з неба сюди
мені тут
мало води
цілую чашку в губи роблю повільно іще ковток ніч, сон, літо проспить так ще кілька століть ніхто не вчить
зупиняти мить
і я вже не маю меж повітря з запахом сліз води яка змиває усі сліди яка стирає усі знання
крім того, що
ти не прийдеш

Lost song

those clouded endless skies like your blurry eyes remind me what I'm used to be when i was running fast
from my childish past and terribly unsettled feelings so pure and so naive
and randomly forgive you've lost your muse and now you are bored of living i wish I could regret
i've dropped your cup
when you were leaving trees
pointed to the highs cut my views like knives extinguishing my sense of seeing no matter how they've grown but their roots are home anticipated to unknown first moments at the last as steps on path of trust in exultation your delusion kept me in the dark
i'm pushed for basis to remember how you were evasive

Плачу

так близько не було ніколи не буде ні з ким.
твоє життє нїмбоколом
залило мїй дїм.
з тобою можливе можливо а це майже все
ми вина одного розливу небесних пїсень
я плачу, бо тебе не бачу я хочу виплакати очї бо це вони тебе не бачать хоча я знаю, що ти поруч так низько не падають там де немає небес моя нерозвїдана правда – шукати тебе
у кожній таємній щїлині у сонця вогні
у кожній зустрїчній людинї у кожному днї

The Light

you know
from
best wishes
to your greed's
i know I can be
a leader
is it what you want
a sweeter torn my harmony
anything you wished to receive you better take it easy and slowly i say
life it's not repetition that's why I making my decision that's why I know
i'll be alright

Listen, Look, Come

the way you feel it something won't let me walk on by
always knew I walked alone i fall into despair drag me way over there even better that it's suddenly i'm afraid to scare you move softly and gently careful, easy, slow you make me feel light as fluff it seems there's already enough and now i'm using my feet to hold onto trees not to be blown by the wind do you feel the same or maybe it's something else you still quiet how do I know if this magic that I feel between us really exist give me a sight, oh please talk to me now

Character

baby, i took your pot and leave all i can say about my thoughts you know, you can be heard but i don't wanna be your tugboat it's seems like all your dreams surely soon will come true but to feel pleasure about it - just be true
baby, you must be right, so who can be with you and by your side?
who can release your soul and gonna be to fall down this wall?
between your beauty arm and newest skills right here and nowhere else i say this spells
baby, i know you take me to your home, darling, i saw you blue and so alone to be a found the endless heart it's like a time for us i know you can love at it all baby, you start this game it's just another frame it's less my time to speak i talk with you tonight because you sleek this spot is in your brain but you forget yourself and love your train like low and like high doesn't depend on the world around if i for you too tight - it's only thing that you create and found

Good Morning

good morning, country
as I saw you in the darkness night
now I know that only time was right and all those things that you have seen around off course created by the shine of rising sun
now we celebrate the dawn it's joy of life - time when the night has gone i think, now that I can tell you
yes, it's true
